

Extraordinary People

... personalized care

Because childbirth was a very meaningful part of Faith's own life, she can easily relate to the hopes and emotions of mothers-to-be.

After assisting with labor and delivery, Faith enjoys teaching about newborn care and breastfeeding. When caring for premature or ill newborns in the Special Care Nursery, she calms parents' anxiety by sharing her experience and compassion.

Faith says, "I've been at YVMC for 15 years, which goes to show how much I like it here. I get to work with my brother and new sister-in-law and I'm part of a very special team that puts patient care first. Maybe that's why so many parents say they wish they could take us home with them!"
