

Extraordinary People

... personalized care

"Thank you for all you did in organizing my interview. The positive staff outlook, technology, patient satisfaction results, cleanliness, etc. made a lasting impression. You should be proud of where you work, Mary."

— A job applicant

Mary oversees the dynamic process of recruiting and retaining qualified, quality employees who align with YVMC's positive culture. She has a special intuition for recognizing outstanding individuals who exemplify values such as compassion and collaboration.

Mary says, "I welcome every new hire, and I love helping someone who is excited to be starting at YVMC. To see people excel and progress in their jobs, and to be truly happy working here, is so rewarding."
